BEACH TRADERS TAKE CITY TO HIGH COURT

Dear Supporter,

Informal beach traders, Lucille and Quinton Abrams (The Pancake) have been trading on the Muizenberg beachfront for approximately 5 years and are well loved in the community.

When their permit lapsed, they applied for a renewed 3 year permit but were unsuccessful. The matter was appealed and was subsequently dismissed.

Councillor Karl Bodin of the CAPEXIT Party was contacted for assistance by these two CAPEXIT Party members. He immediately came to their aid and proceeded to represent them in numerous discussions, which included a meeting with Mr Festus (Head of Cape Town Informal Beach Trading).

The reason the City gave for not issuing them with another permit for 3 years, was because their score equaled that of a new applicant. The City then chose to rather allocate the permit for the specific trading site to the new applicant, allegedly following the By-law. Cllr Karl Bodin advised our members to continue the fight by taking the matter on review to the Western Cape High Court. The next step is to apply for an Interdict to have the traders returned to their trading site, pending the outcome of the High Court review.

The CAPEXIT Party promised prior to the 2021 Local Government Election that if we win one or more seats, we will use our authority to hold the Municipality, the ruling party - which is the DA - and Ward Councillors accountable to the communities. With two seats in the Cape Town City Council, the party is delivering on its election promises to members and the community!
