

Cape Independence Party Fights the IEC Again

Dear Supporter,

On Friday, 8 March 2024, the Cape Independence Party delivered a total of 11,114 supporter signatures to the IEC from across South Africa, of which, approximately 7,500 signatures were from voters registered in the Western Cape.

This number is considerably in excess of the requirement of 7,176 signatures, set by the IEC, in order to contest the 2024 Elections - Western Cape Provincial Ballot.

In light of this, we have persistently tried over the last two weeks, via both email and telephonic communication, to contact the IEC to receive confirmation that we have been duly approved to contest the 2024 Elections. We have had no response from them.

On Monday, 18 March 2024, in accordance with the election timetable, the IEC was obligated to announce whether parties had any issues of non-compliance or issues of disqualification in order to contest the elections.

With no response from the IEC in regard to any of our previous emails or phone calls, we noted that from Monday, 18 March 2024 onwards, the IEC online platform showed that the IEC had duly confirmed and accepted our list for candidate nominations, accepted our financial deposit to contest the elections, and confirmed zero issues of non-compliance, and zero issues of disqualification.

According to the electoral timetable, this Tuesday, 26 March 2024, was the deadline for the IEC to release the list of their approved parties to contest the 2024 elections, in spite of the aforementioned facts, the Cape Independence Party is not reflected on this list.

Following this, we once again attempted to make contact with the IEC to determine if this was an administrative error, or for some other reason as yet uncommunicated with us. But once again, we have had no response.

As a result of this, and in consultation with our legal team, we confirm that we have been left no option but to approach the Electoral Court to seek a response from the IEC in this regard.

We have faith that justice will prevail, that our application to the IEC to contest in the 2024 Elections will be duly approved, and that your and our democratic rights will not be overridden by acts of injustice.

We will keep you updated as this matter proceeds.
