

In Loving Memory of Neil de Beer

Dear Supporter,

The Cape Independence Party would like to send its condolences to Councillor Neil de Beer's loved ones on his passing.

In politics one doesn't necessarily need to share the ideology of everyone on the political spectrum, but we can certainly respect and appreciate those good people that are trying to make a difference.

Cape Independence Party (CAPEXIT) leader Cllr Jack Miller says: "I got to know Neil over many years. We shared many battles together, often fighting on the same side for what was right. I am saddened by his loss. Neil as a friend will be sorely missed. My condolences to the De Beer family and everyone near to him."

"CAPEXIT's Cllr Karl Bodin says: "I'm saddened by the passing of our City of Cape Town Council colleague, Cllr Neil de Beer. Neil was often the voice of reason at times of raucous actions in the Chamber and he will be missed. Condolences to his family, friends and the UIM staff."

May Neil de Beer's legacy of dedication and service continue to inspire us all in the pursuit of a better future.
